THE FRENCH have dropped badly yesterday, and it's not surprising. The French election shows that France is worried about things in general. That worries owners of French currency. But be careful how you sell francs short. Those that tried it, have had a painful experience recently.

JONCARE'S downfall surprises those that do not know the French people. After he had done almost everything the French wanted, including forcible treatment of the Germans in the occupation of the Rhine, the French put Joncare out.

The French do not like direct taxation. French peasants especially object to being taxed. They are willing to buy bonds of their country, in their last franc. But they don't understand the francs being taken away from them, especially after they won the war.

THERE ARE jungles—of crime—and jungle savages in this republic, as there are in Africa. And you will find in the United States crime, jungle brutality, greater, more cold-blooded and cruel than among barbarous people.

Six handily, after stealing fifteen hundred dollars in cash and knocking three persons senseless with the butts of their pistols, locked them with four others in a refrigerator, leaving them to freeze to death. They would all have frozen had not a mere accident saved them.

IN CHICAGO a man held up on the street, with only a few cents in his pocket, was beaten into insensibility and almost killed by the highwayman "to teach him better next time." The American criminal is particularly cruel and the American mob particularly brutal.

NEAR THE news of criminal brutality you read about the starting of a gigantic generator in one of the Edison electric light plants. With one finger, M. S. Sloan, president of the company, yesterday threw a switch and started generally $9,000,000 of electricity, equal to 67,000 horse power.

SCIENCE has progressed more rapidly than civilization. A race of men that with one finger can start a machine to produce 67,000 horse power is unable with all its laws, police, parliament, judges and prisons to do away with war, or with brutal crimes between wars.

THERE IS good news for the wives, mothers, daughters, sisters and aunts of delegates that will soon come to the Democratic convention in New York. Commissioner Burleigh, head of the city's police, will investigate, warn and partly all vice resorts, if any, existing in the biggest city in the world.

Gabaret performers are to be executed, dance halls are to be elevated in tone. The morals of delegates are to be preserved at any cost.

ONE OF THE greatest demonstrations ever witnessed in the United States was seen yesterday, when a million people (mostly wives of Old-age's cronies, sporting Cardinal Mundelein, Archbishop of Chicago, in his progress from the railway station to the Bay State Cabaret).

Devoting from the custom usually followed in this country, Cardinal Mundelein passed through the streets, to the great satisfaction of the crowd, wearing the full Cardinal's costume, the cardinal, including the great cloak of cardinal red, with red cape, trimmed with fur, and a long train.

COOLIDGE FRAUD IS CHARGED

Curley Declares Appeal for Campaign Fund Violates Corrupt Practice Act

Mayor Curley today sent a letter to United States Senator David I. Walsh, demanding a senatorial investigation of the Calvin Coolidge finance committee.

The Mayor's attack is based on an appeal for funds sent by G. F. Elliott on the letter head of the Calvin Coolidge finance committee, at which Howard Conner, president of the Chamber of Commerce, is head.

The Elliott letter follows: "The Massachusetts Calvin Coolidge Finance Committee has designated to me the chairmanship of the joint citizens and allied material group in the matter of collecting funds to make sure of the continuation and election of Calvin Coolidge."

"The money goes first to the national Coolidge preservation fund for maintaining Calvin Coolidge headquarters and organization work; secondly, to pay a portion of the national committee expenses; thirdly, to maintain the Massachusetts State committee active work of restoration and Americanization throughout all our districts, and to carry on the active campaign for all Federal and State offices as soon as nominations are over."

"NO LIMIT"
"There is no limit to the amount an individual may give to this committee. Large contributions will be solicited as in the case of the Municipal Court today, and in the requirements of the statutes. All contributions must be voluntary."

GOODWIN'S FRESHMAN POWER CUT BY BILL SPELLS

Traffic Board Act Takes the Regulation of Auto Lights and Brakes From Registrar

Regulation of automobile headlights, involving hundreds of thousands of dollars to the manufacturers, is taken out of the hands of Frank A. Goodwin, registrar of motor vehicles, through the formation of the proposed new "Motor Traffic Board."

This was rumored today at the State House as the biggest feature of the Massachusetts public safety committee report and accompanying bill, over which a fierce was fought through an error that apparently placed the registrar's appointment in the Governor's hands.

The regulation of brakes, another powerful factor in motor vehicle regulation, is also taken out of Goodwin's jurisdiction.

It was hinted at the State House today that persons interested in headlights and tail-light matters have displayed a decided interest in the report and bill sent to the Legislature by Governor Cox. The reason has been conducted several months ago in light.

Somewhat more than a year ago a prominent that all cars must be equipped with lights O. K'd by the registrar caused an outbreak of outrage throughout the State.

CLAUDE A. MISTAKE
It was explained that the disturbing "anti-Goodwin" clause in regard of the public safety report was "a mistake" slip or two copies, with a bad error, were passed out to newspapermen in a hurry.

This was made clear at the State House today by General John H. Phelan, chairman of the Public Safety Committee, who submitted the final, signed and corrected report to the Governor.

The report and accompanying bill sent to the Legislature, and the one now sent to the printer were checked over carefully after being recalled and were found to contain no mention of the registrar's being appointed by the Governor. The final, signed and corrected report to the Governor.

OLD COLONY EMPLOYEE VANISHES

19-Year-Old Youth Drops Out of Sight, Carrying $10,000 in Papers

William D. Mardin, nineteen-year-old bank messenger of the Old Colony Trust Company, has disappeared along with $10,000 worth of bank checks he carried in a satchel.

The youth left the Old Colony building at 120 Monday afternoon to have the check endorsed at other banks about the city. Nothing has been seen of him since.

According to officials of the trust company, the checks were what is known in banking terms as "cash" and the messenger could not have secured any money on them.

The boy's mother, a widow residing at No. 323 Charles street, West End, declares her son is a sufferer from a nervous complaint which caused partial loss of memory.

"I'm sure he lost his memory and wandering about somewhere," the mother told police and officials of the trust company.

The boy has been employed at the trust company since last October. Ordinarily he was first intended studying for the ministry, but he was finally forced to quit school and seek employment. The position at the trust company was the only one he ever held.

The checks entrusted to him were drawn on various banks in Boston and made payable to the Old Colony Trust Company. Before these could be negotiated it was first necessary to get the endorsement of the banks on which they were drawn.

Ex-Kaiser in Germany, Is Wireless Report From Mauen

New York, May 13.—Former Kaiser Wilhelm of Germany and Princess Hermine, his wife, left Doorn today for Saabro, Silesia, ostensibly to spend a vacation with Hermine's children, according to a wireless report broadcast from Mauen, Germany, and picked up by the New York World, that newspaper states today.

If the report is true the German government has reversed its policy toward Wilhelm Hohenzollern, as the allies repeatedly have been assured that the former Kaiser would not be allowed to enter German territory.

Silesia is one of the most strongly monarchist sections of the Reich.

5 P. C. BOOST FOR ENGINEERS ON D. & M.

Following announcement by Boston & Maine officials that because of a decline in business discharge of a number of employees would be necessary, came news that engineers, firemen, and hostlers have been granted a 5 per cent. increase, effective from May 1.

The increase affects approximately 2,000 men, though 100 men have already been dropped from the force at the Fall River shops.

An increase of about $300,000 a year in the annual payroll will result from the increase.

HARVARD OARSMAN VANISHES LEAVING EMPTY BOAT ON CHARLES

DRAWING OF RIVER FAILS TO BRING TRACE OF STUDENT

The Metropolitan Police, today, has expressed the hope that the student will appear.

The friends believe that the student was with a party of students or was somewhere in the vicinity and would not in his appearance at the boat house within a short time.

The fact that the boat was on a raft of having been "towed over" that both were in place and that the river was calm, despite the fact that the boat was on a raft, is an indication that nothing out of the ordinary had happened.

The boat just slipped into the river from where he had been in the house of a friend, the boat was the property of a friend of the student who had been in the boat house when the student was last seen.

When the boat was in the river, it was not shown up, friends became apprehensive.

CLASSMATE AID

Police with a group of friends went to work on the river bottom for a quarter of a mile in both directions from Talbot street in Brighton.

The family of the student was notified and the father hurried to the river. His daughter and the anxious father assisted the police.

No trace of the body was found.

Police then made a search for the body along the river.

The boat had been a "towed over" along the shore. The boat was in a rowing shell. No one was in the boat when it was found.

At the university it was reported that the boat was "towed over" it was tipped over it would sink.

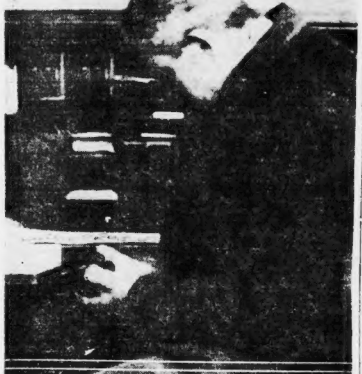

The river is full of all kinds of boats and it might have been a case of a boat being tipped over.

Philip S. Sears Devoting Much Time to Sculpturing, Betty Alden Hears

By BETTY ALDEN.

AFTER extensive travels on foreign shores, Mr. and Mrs. Philip S. Sears have returned to "Warren Farm" as their Brookline home is called.

Mr. Sears has become greatly interested in sculpturing, and during his recent travels abroad, he has been working on a number of pieces.

Mr. and Mrs. Sears will probably open "The Pines" their new home, before very long.

Mr. Sears' son, David Sears, 2nd, was married last June to Miss M. E. Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen are now at their country estate in Westwood, known as "Broadfield".

For the coming season, Mr. Sears will be the manager of the Summer colony at Prides, where they have leased the place again.

They will be likely welcomed along the shore, which promises to have an unusually brilliant season.

Mr. Sears, who is one of the country's most attractive painters, is pictured along with Mrs. E. Somner Welch.

ANDER SHOE CLAIMS DEVICE MADE TO PREVENT QUAKE DEATHS

Employing 500, Says He Cannot Continue Under the Present Conditions

Haverhill, May 12.—Herman C. Lewis, shoe manufacturer, employing 500 hands and one of the most prominent and successful manufacturers in the city, today tendered the resignation as a member of the Shoe Manufacturers Association.

He states that he is unable to continue in business under present conditions in the city.

Within the last month, six other manufacturers have resigned from membership in the association. They have given other reasons for leaving the city.

They are Fred L. Haverhill, Herman Marshall, Edward McCormick and Napoleon T. Smith. During the last year, the membership of the association has decreased 50 per cent.

Lewis will discontinue production here immediately. He says that in view of present conditions it is impossible for him to manufacture shoes here successfully.

He has been connected with the industry 25 years and recognized as a shoe leader.

Italian Scientist Declares Apparatus Gives a 15-Minute Warning of Disturbances

Rome, Italy, May 12.—Scientist declares no longer cause for alarm, according to Professor Cavalli, noted seismologist, who claims to have constructed an apparatus, named patented, whereby earthquakes are announced at least 15 minutes before they occur.

The scientist also claims to be able with very slight possibility of error to locate beforehand the center of telluric phenomena, their intensity and the direction of their most intense manifestations.

Signor Cavalli's theories, for last March, which were based on a theory how some time in advance of the expected disturbances, were accurately confirmed by subsequent events.

The studies of the recent earthquake at Anagni, he declares, convinced him of the validity of his theory.

Signor Cavalli is inclined to believe the theory which he says was known to the ancients that great

Radium Worth $5,000 Thrown in Hospital Furnace by Nurse

Martin's Ferry, O., May 12.—Specialists are searching the site of a furnace fire to recover, if possible, radium valued at $5,000 which was accidentally thrown into the fire at the hospital after it had been removed from a patient.

The radium was in two capsules in a rubber tubing, and a nurse, believing that it had been thrown into the furnace, threw the discolored tubing into the furnace.

The fire was immediately extinguished and an expert summoned from Pittsburgh to assist in the reclamation. The radium, which was in the tubing, was found in the furnace in the form in which it was used, it is feared.

Accidents involving radium are not uncommon, and the use of radium in hospitals is increasing.

The fire was immediately extinguished and an expert summoned from Pittsburgh to assist in the reclamation. The radium, which was in the tubing, was found in the furnace in the form in which it was used, it is feared.

COSTIVENESS

—the Aggravation, if not the Cause, of most Diseases

When the bowels become clogged with poisonous waste matter, cleanse them at once, but avoid drastic purgatives; they make constipation worse by irritating the delicate linings of the intestines and digestive tract.

Use Beecham's Pills, which are mild but effective, tone the stomach and liver, and train the bowels to natural, complete functioning. (See Booklet.)

SOUTH END HOST AND GUEST DEAD FROM GAS

Carl Benson, aged sixty-five, and an unidentified man who apparently was his guest, were found dead of gas poisoning in Benson's apartment at No. 15 East Springfield street.

eye glasses and had a medium complexion and brown hair. Benson's daughter, Clara, aged twenty-three, is absent from home on a visit, having left last Saturday. Police believe that on her return she may assist in identifying the stranger.

NEWPORT MAID TO WED RICH HARVARD MAN

John Nicholas Brown of Providence Said to Have Won Hand of Helen Moran

Newport, R. I., May 12.—The tea sounds of the society and Helen Moran engaged again, this time to John Nicholas Brown, a Harvard man.

Mr. Brown's fortune is conservatively placed at about $20,000,000.

Charles Moran of New York and Newport denies his daughter is engaged. But that doesn't carry conviction in the society set, who remember that Mrs. Thomas Marion Robinson, the former Cornelia Hilda Drake, denied all last winter at Palm Beach her engagement that resulted in her recent marriage.

The engagement gossip resulted from the Titanic-related Helen being seen so much at the Casino in company of Mr. Brown. Miss Moran had formerly been the prospective fiancée of Francis Burke-Roth— one of the famous twins whose brother Maurice Burke-Roth became Lord Penmore when he inherited vast Irish estates a few years ago.

Miss Moran was bridesmaid at the recent Cecil Vanderbilt wedding. She has for the past few years been the favorite subject of the society matrons who spend their spare time making possible matches for Newport's society girls.

MAN IN CORRIDOR

Test and found in one case, but not found in another was the experience of a woman and a man at the Suffolk County Court House.
The man, in going through a crowd near the office of the District Attorney, had $19 when his pocket was picked.
The young woman, who used a telephone booth in the immediate vicinity, discovered that her pocketbook, containing $19, was missing. She went back to the booth and inside the door her pocketbook was there she had dropped it.

A MAN WHO BECAME FAMOUS

Doctor B. V. Pierce, whose name is known all over the world, was not only a successful physician, but also a profound student of the medicinal qualities of Nature's remedies, herbs and barks, and by close observation of the methods used by the Indians, he discovered their great medicinal qualities, especially for weakness of women, and after careful preparation succeeded in giving to the world a remedy which has been called for by women with the best results for half a century. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is still in demand, while many other so-called "female pills" have come and gone. The reason for its phenomenal success is because of its absolute purity, and Dr. Pierce's high standard as an honored citizen of Buffalo, N. Y., as a guarantee of its high quality for the Favorite Prescription as a remedy for the ailments of women.

THURSTON DELIGHTS CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL

WORKING MAGIC FOR PATIENTS
Thurston, the magician, is one of his stunts that made the patients in the children's hospital forget their sorrows for a while after-noon. On his right is Thomas Hennessy and on his left is Glenison Shawcross.

Many patients at the Children's Hospital on Longwood avenue are trying to "take dollars full out of the ends of crutches and rabbits from beneath doctors' coats today as a result of the visit of Howard Thurston, world famous magician, now staying at Sokey, Thetford, Mr. Thurston entertained the sick and crippled kiddies in the hospital wards by special arrangement with the Boston American.

The feats of magic performed by Mr. Thurston made the little boys and girls confined at the hospital forget all their troubles for the time being.

"Tommy" Hennessy, who uses crutches to get about the institution while one of his legs is mending, got the surprise of his life when the end of one of the crutches gave forth a dollar bill at the magician's command.

Glenison Shawcross, who is going to begin use of his twisted fingers by wearing a stunner looking frame, was amazed and elated when the "king of magic" turned a rabbit into a box of candy for Miss Marion Boat, his favorite nurse. When a rack of playing cards emerged from the nose of Dr. Ray Haugh, the children's delight seemed boundless.

GIRL DIES TO MAJOR MARTIN LEAVE 'LONELY' NEW YORK

"Life Has Been Hard With Me," She Writes Before Committing Suicide

New York, May 13 (U.S.A.)—Last night a lonely, flowered note, Rose Harris, twenty-one, died today after fighting a losing battle with the loneliness of New York. She was taken from the furnished room and forcing apartment from some notion.

Mario Haines, held as a material witness, said she became ill while watching and he took her to his room and called a physician.

"I've often said I am going, Farewell my pals. Life has been hard with me," was scribbled in a note-book found in the girl's hand.

Directions were in the note-book to notify Mrs. Joseph Harris, of Haines's Run, W. Va., who authorizes believe he her mother.

"She continued in the note-book flattered the girl's loneliness and indicated she had been disappointed in a late affair.

"Sweet memory boy, sweet heart of soul," said one passage. "Sometimes when I'm lonely and blue no one will do but you. Your voice comes from far away to me. Kiss me."

Finding New York lonely she wrote this.

"I know one at this time I will come to you for, Oh, God, I'm so lonesome. It is hard when no one comes. This struggle, this sadness, this struggle—what's the use?"

Police found she had been living at the Chelsea House, a home for working girls. She arrived there May 5 and said she had come to New York to find work.

Burbank Finds Way to Make Poppies Bloom at Night

San Francisco, May 13.—Thanks to Luther Burbank, the plant wizard of Santa Rosa, the wild poppies of California for the first time are gracing social functions at night with their petals open. Hereafter the golden petals closed themselves at sundown.

A San Francisco matron recently complained to Mr. Burbank that it was a shame poppies had to go to sleep so early in the evening, and as a result he gave her this advice:

Stash the poppies to their bed just before daybreak, while their petals still are closed. Then place them on for the day. In the evening the flowers, put in water and exposed to the warm air of a drawing room, will yawn gratefully, open their petals and expand their loveliness for all beholders.

From Burlington they will proceed to Seattle and thence back to Washington, where they will outfit a new world cruiser to be shipped to the point designated by the three other planes of the flight.

This plan was agreed upon at a conference between Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of Air Service, and Secretary of War Weeks.

World Flies Prepare for Hop to Japan
Cardova, Alaska, May 13 (A.P.)—With calm weather forecast for today at Alaska Island, where three United States army cruises arrived from Alaska Island, it was expected that the aviators would complete preparations for the next jump tomorrow, of their world-encircling flight. This will be a thrilling race to Paramaribo Island in the Kurile Strait, Japan.

Meanwhile Major Frederick L. Martin, commander of the expedition, and his mechanic, Staff Sergeant Alva L. Harvey, who crashed on a mountain 100 miles north of Chukchi, April 30, and who reached Port Moller on the Bering Sea coast, May 12, were to leave today aboard either the United States expedition cutter Albatross or the official Amphibious vessel Cathlamet, which is en route to Seattle, and Washington, D. C.

From the latter place the men are expected to proceed for India, where Major Martin will again assume charge of the squadron.

A Wonderfully Fine Soap ~ A Health Beauty Talk by the Health Doctor

I have just received a letter from a Mother which is so like other letters Mothers are writing me that I am going to quote one paragraph:

"My children use Lifebuoy because I am sure it is as good as any soap I have ever used. It is so good for the skin that I have recently been using Lifebuoy myself and my skin feels softer, clearer and prettier looking than ever before. You have emphasized the protective quality of Lifebuoy. I am sure that Lifebuoy makes WASHING better than any soap I have ever used."

That's a point I want to settle once and for all.

Lifebuoy should be used every day

HEALTH and Health Beauty cannot be secured by thinking about them spasmodically—or worse, waiting until we are sick before we begin to think about health and keeping well. So naturally a soap which protects health is one which is made to be used many times a day. It should be the mildest, purest soap it is possible to make at any price. Lifebuoy is such a soap. It is even more than a pure soap—it is a health soap.

It agrees with your skin

The oils of palm fruit and coconut used in Lifebuoy are recognized as most beneficial to the skin.

Palm oil is red so Lifebuoy is red in color. It would not do to bleach away from the red palm oil any of its peculiarly soothing qualities so particularly desirable in the care of a delicate skin.

The gentle antisepsis in Lifebuoy imparts mildness to the rich, creamy lather and a peculiar purifying quality which is exactly what your skin needs to keep pores from clogging and to promote that clear underglow of health which is the secret of a radiant complexion.

Avoid skin fatigue

ANOTHER thing—Lifebuoy soots the skin. When you are tired and nervously irritable all over, take a Lifebuoy bath. The network of my nerves just under the skin will be soothed. Skin fatigue is one of the worst foes of beauty.

Get several cakes. You will soon become fond of the cleanly, quickly vanishing Lifebuoy odor; it gives one such a comfortable feeling of being safely clean. Its habitual use is a very real protection to the whole family. And it agrees with your skin.

My book "HEALTH BEAUTY" mailed for 10 cents

Licensing of Brokers, Re-

New York, May 13.—District Atpaign for legislation which would compel brokers to be licensed by the state.

He told the New York State Bar association of Certified Accountants that over $3,000,000,000 had been "stolen" from the people of this country since the close of the war through the sale of spurious securities.
"Something like 200 brokers failed in three years," he added. "Of this number eighty-nine had some standing in the community. The total liabilities of these eighty-nine were $14,000,000. Their total assets were less than ten per cent of their liabilities."
These assets usually were con-

THEATRE FIRE HERO NEAR DEATH

South Boston Man Trapped
In Movie Machine Booth at Manchester, N. H.

Manchester, N. H., May 13.—The brave attempt of John Gilliam, of South Boston, to save the lives of others during a fire in the Star Theatre, a motion picture house, may cost him his own life.
Gilliam was probably fatally burned when he rushed into the projecting booth where the fire started to aid the operator to escape. He was himself trapped and was finally hauled out of the flames by three men with the aid of an umbrella.
Although the hundreds in the audience were soon aroused by the flame of the fire in the projecting booth, the orchestra continued to play and there was no rush for safety.
Spectators kept their seats upon the assurance of managers and others that there was no danger.
It was not until Gilliam's action was noticed in the balcony that the excitement began.
When the young South Boston man entered the operating booth
the operator, Arthur Metz, had escaped unscathed, Gilliam, to make sure that no others remained in the booth, remained, feeling his way about.
The warnings of others outside of the room failed to cause him to relinquish his vain efforts and he soon fell prey to the flames.
William H. Clark, John Goss and J. H. Fitzgerald with the umbrella took turns in groping for Gilliam.
They finally succeeded in dragging him out of the flames and removed him to the Sacred Heart Hospital.
Gilliam is about twenty-seven years old. He is employed as a car maker.

O.K. TO DRINK AT WILLIAMS, BUT NOT TOO MUCH

College Ban on the "Extreme Sofflaws" After Hectic
Week-End Parties

Williamstown, May 13.—An ban on drinking student hasn't the life of a yellow pop in these days of what is rumored to be prohibition.
Here is the student council of Williams College coming out flat-footed with a mandate against "excessive drinking" by the boys who can take it or leave it alone—sometimes.
From inference it is O.K. to drink,
but drinking must not be excessive.
Stringent punishment will be meted out to those student sofferers who try to beat the food by themselves alone.
The warning is contained in a communication sent to each of the fourteen fraternities.
Week-end parties did it. If it hadn't been for some of the boys who indulged a bit too much, it is hoped, overtime drinking might not be within the pale.

What Gives Many Advertisers Cold Feet Is Lack of Circulation!

Whether you suffer from cold feet actually—

In your shoes—

Or cold feet figuratively—

In your advertising—

The cause is Lack of Circulation.

Your advertising may suffer from other causes, too.

Perhaps your advertising man lacks ideas—

Or suffers from too much interference—which is more likely—

But even these handicaps are overcome by circulation—

This does not mean that circulation condones poor advertising—

It simply means that great circulation will redeem an indifferent advertisement, whereas indifferent circulation is powerless to put over a good one.

Words are an art, and the quality of any advertisement is subject to difference of opinion.

But circulation is a science, and its quality is established by ascendancy of numbers.

You yourself must decide THE WAY YOUR MESSAGE SHALL BE PUT.

But 240,000 people are on record as to WHERE YOU OUGHT TO PUT IT.

That is more people than buy any other Boston evening newspaper.

And, incidentally, they pay more for it.

Other papers cost two cents.

The Boston American costs three cents.

The other is a preference at a premium!

LOUISIANA HANGINGS SEEN FROM THE AIR

This was the only photo taken of the execution last Friday at Angola, La., of six inmates for the murder of Judge Cline three years ago. The double arrow points to the bodies of two of the men swinging on the gallows. The other four were swinging on the gallows in the background. The photo was taken from a plane directly over the gallows.

Poor Dan Hines! Whatever shall he do? The driver of a truck carting rum was stopped by the police. He said, "I thought each one looked like a bum."

Ex-Head of Harvard Protests Proposed Apartments Within Five Feet of Fresh Pond Line

A former bookshelf is one thing in the opinion of Dr. Charles W. Eliot, President-elect of Harvard, but building a big apartment house within five feet of the Fresh Pond Parkway line in the Cambridge district of Cambridge is an entirely different proposition.

LAST CHANCE FOR SOX TO TEST STRENGTH WITH BROWNS

WHITE SOX NEXT ON CARD

Stunshine is wanted so badly at the Fenway that unless it appears shortly Bob Quinn will have to build a roof over his ball park to keep it from turning into a goldfish hatchery or something. Three-fourths of the Brown series has already been blotted out, and unless there's some sort of a miracle, today's final scheduled embroglio will go the damp way of the others.

Both managers, Miller and Pohl, are ready to get a bit grouchy about the whole thing. They had their pitchers and their batters laid along very smartly, and they expect they may have to start all over again.

How ever, Lee Pohl has some consolation in the fact that his team were parked in second place when the Boston club has proved at the home advantage the stage of a game for a long day. They will have a long home drive in the afternoon and don't get into the worst of it, but losing the Browns.

That of it was whirling along at a pace that was not to be topped. The Sox have been the best team in the league, but as soon as they got rolling they were rolling. They have been hitting under the club in the last few days, and have been getting good hits in the last few days.

It is hard to get a whole lot of the Sox, but they are a permanent possession of the Boston club. They have been hitting under the club in the last few days, and have been getting good hits in the last few days.
